MANHOOD

IS THE

YOUNG AND RISING GENERATION.

The vegetative powers of the young, but in years have often the health, the look, the and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show their baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body, too much enfeebled to give vent to health and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwardly upon themselves.

If the patient be a female the approach of the menstrual period, with its attendant distressing difficulties, in which nature is to show her power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has given by what it feeds on. The energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is de-range. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain.

The patient's heart beats in anxiety, and faintly she waits for the return of her health.

For weakness arising from Excesses or
